

Medienstadt Köln`09
City of Media Cologne`09

A warm welcome to the “City of Media Cologne 2009”

There isn't any day that you cannot watch a camera team working on a set somewhere in Cologne. The omnipresent media industry influences Cologne's way of life – and vice versa. In the theme year of 2009, KölnTourismus aims at conveying Cologne's reputation as an innovative, creative and vivacious media metropolis that can be sensed and experienced by visitors. For this purpose, KölnTourismus, inter alia, has produced an image film to have the multifaceted kaleidoscope of the local media scene introduced by a renowned Cologne co-median. You can find this film and further information on www.koelntourismus.de.

The KölnTourismus team wishes you lots of fun in the City of Media Cologne 2009!
